Spring 2021 Supplement
April & May

The Twenty Years' Crisis — Joyce Francis

Seven Thursday Evenings, April 15→May 27, 6-7 PM

After 20 years at Foreign Affairs, Editor Gideon Rose is stepping down. As his parting gift to readers, he compiled a list of 14 articles that he highlighted as capturing the arch of global events over those 20 years, asking what we might learn in order to face issues in the future. These articles cover a wide range of topics from terrorism and civil war to racism, immigration and beyond. We'll discuss two articles per week over the 7 weeks, seeking to gain an understanding of the importance he places on them and of how they fit into his overarching narrative.

Rose's narrative, which he entitled "The Twenty Years' Crisis," and the 14 articles he highlighted (numbered in the order in which we will read them) are available on the ALPs Google Docs at https://tinyurl.com/GDWebinar2021. Please enroll through SignUpGenius at https://tinyurl.com/ALPs2021Spring. Scroll to the bottom of the page to find April 15.

Joyce Francis taught International Relations at American, Tulane and George Mason Universities in the Washington DC area. For more information, contact Joyce at joyce.francis.pt@gmail.com or 301-512-6815.