

DISPLAYS AND BULLETIN BOARDS POLICY

Adopted 6/10/1987; Amended 9/11/2002; 6/9/2010; and 10/14/2015

Displays

Library displays and exhibits are offered to assist patrons in their exploration of educational, cultural, intellectual, and civic pursuits. Displays incorporate library materials, whenever possible, as a means of informing users of the range of library resources and services. The library endeavors to offer exhibits of diverse subject matter for children, adults, and families.

Public use of display space is limited to not-for-profit, non-partisan, non-commercial exhibits.

The library reserves the right to arrange exhibits and to make the final decision regarding content and physical presentation of all exhibits and displays. The library assumes no legal or financial responsibility for loss or damage to items loaned for display or exhibit.

Bulletin Boards and Pamphlet Distribution

A bulletin board and a pamphlet distribution rack are maintained for posting and distribution of information about current events of interest to the community, on a space available basis. The bulletin board and pamphlet rack are for announcements by non-profit groups and for announcements of not-for-profit educational events and activities. Permission must be obtained from the library director or a designee prior to posting. The library assumes no responsibility for the loss or damage to materials posted or distributed. Posting or distribution of materials does not imply endorsement by the library.

Petitions or election materials may not be placed on bulletin boards or literature distribution racks, or otherwise left in library facilities. Such materials left in library facilities will be discarded.
